THE WOODMEN

GREENWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

GREENWOOD, INDIANA

FOREWORD

The staff of the 1956 WOODMEN proudly present this annual as a remembrance of some of the highlights of our High School days. We realize that education is the gateway to a richer and fuller life. We have tried to include every individual, activity, and school function in this yearbook and we hope that each and every student will feel that this is solely his annual.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

STANLEY PORTER

Graduates of 1956, we congratulate you on your achievements and we want you to know that we are proud to have you identified as graduates of our school system.

Greenwood graduates for many years have gone into a wide variety of professions and occupations with a high degree of success and have become conscientious, responsible citizens in the communities in which they reside.

You are to be commended for your leadership, academic success, worthwhile participation in activities in and out of school, and for the individual goals you have set for your future endeavors.

Your yearbook, THE WOODMEN, is another fine achievement which we add with pride to our growing list of school publications.

We will miss you, and the students who follow you here will have to strive greatly to measure up to your successes.

Being associated with you has been pleasant and we are proud of this association.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

School days for most of us are happy, pleasant, and worthwhile days. This school year, now closing, was no exception. Last fall we started school with considerable tenseness and anticipation for so many of us were new to the school and unaccustomed to working with each other. I am happy that this strangeness and uncertainty soon melted into agreeableness and understanding. As a result, we have enjoyed a fine, profitable school year.

This yearbook, on which you seniors and your sponsor have done such an outstanding job, puts together in pictorial form the outstanding accomplishments of the school year 1955-56. All of these achievements could not have been reached without a spirit of cooperation on the part of all, and an honest desire to work together for the good of the entire school. This has made my job much easier, and for this, I want to thank each and every student, and every member of the faculty.

May I take this opportunity to wish you seniors the very best of success and happiness as you take your leave of us. I have had the opportunity to work with you for only one year, but in that time I feel that I have come to know and appreciate you. If your enthusiasm and zeal throughout this past year is any criteria of your future success, then I can see nothing but the best for each one of you. May good fortune be yours in everything you undertake is my sincere wish for you.

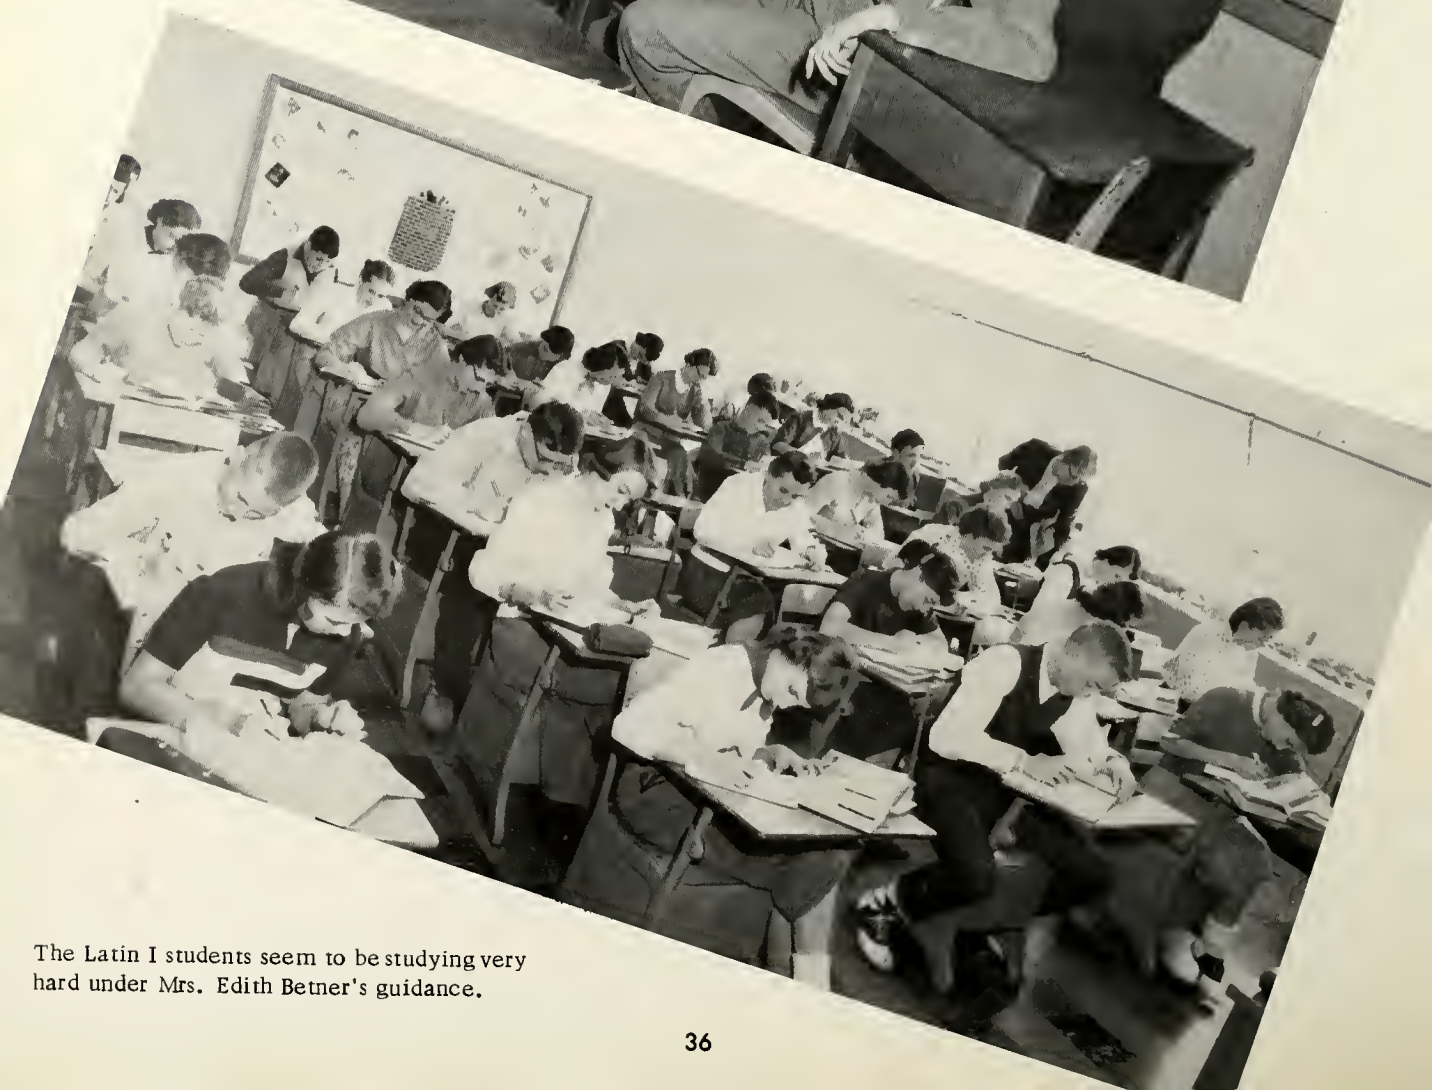
Earl DeRiter, under supervision of Carl Grigsby, instructor, is explaining a formula to Solid Geometry class members David Sheek, Walter Neff, and Chico Tinkle.



The Latin I students seem to be studying very hard under Mrs. Edith Betner's guidance.

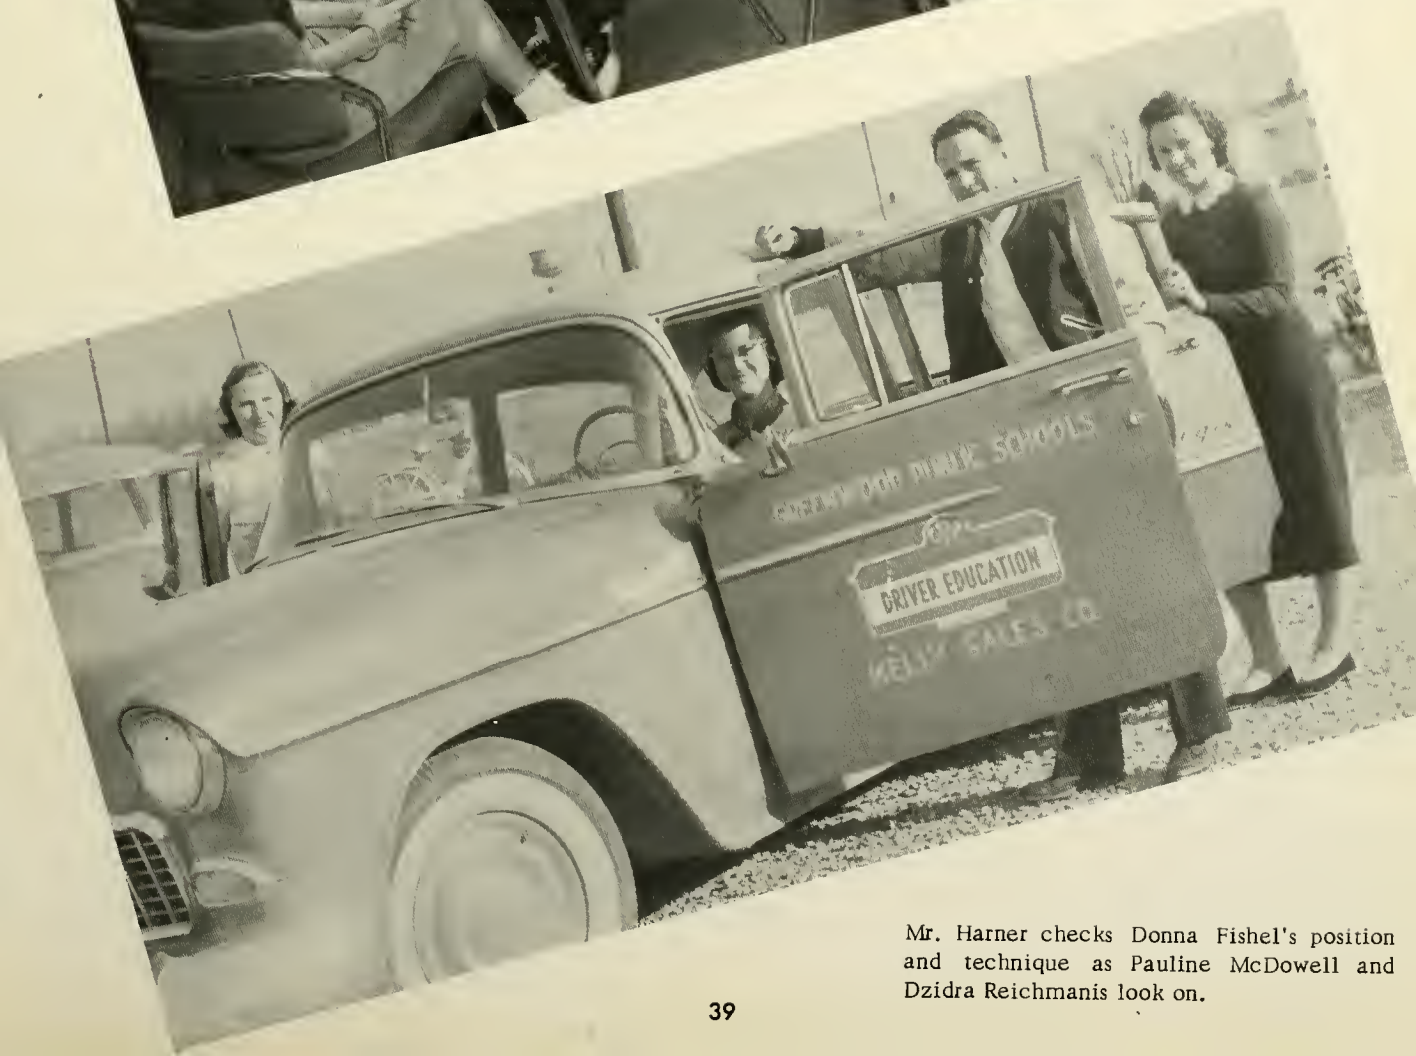
Mr. Carl Grigsby is making sure the Chemistry students do their experiment correctly.

Mr. Young watches intently as Larry Hagy shows the Sophomore World History Class some Mohammedan Conquests.

The first-year shorthand students watch as Business Education Teacher, Naomi Waymire, shows them some brief forms.

Mr. Baker shows Jimmy Dial how to hold the wood as the rest of the 8th grade Industrial Arts Students keep busy.

Showing some Home Economics students the proper form for a place setting is Mrs. Joan Norman, instructor.



Mr. Harner checks Donna Fishel's position and technique as Pauline McDowell and Dzidra Reichmanis look on.

Isabel Iglesias shows Miss Elizabeth Todd her work as other High School Art students James Seigman, Jack Burton, Peggy Thompson, and Joann Kinley try their hand.

Shown in Greenwood's 2-year-old gymnasium is the 9th and 10th grade Boys' Physical Education class, under the supervision of Norman Harner.

"EAT US TO WASHINGTON" DINNER

The "Eat Us To Washington" dinner was the most profitable money making project that the Seniors sponsored. It was on April 7 at the Presbyterian Church. There were two servings, one at 5:30 p.m. and the other at 7:00 p.m.

The menu consisted of ham, scalloped potatoes, green beans, cole slaw, homemade cookies, ice cream, milk and coffee.

There was a complete sellout for both servings and the meal was enjoyed by all. The girls served the dinner while the boys washed the dishes.

Most of the food was donated by the parents of the Seniors.

The mothers did a wonderful job of organizing and preparing the meal. Our deepest thanks to them.

SENIOR DINNER

The Senior Dinner was held on May 24 in the high school gym. It was put on by the mothers of the Senior Class. Approximately 100 high school students attended. The menu consisted of ham sandwiches, baked beans, potato salad, cokes and decorated cakes with "56" on each piece in honor of the seniors. The dinner was climaxed by the issuing of the Senior Edition of the school paper.

These mothers were present and served the Senior Dinner, which is an annual event, Mesdames Charles Cutrell, Loren Peavler, Arthur Worrick, F. D. Millspaugh, Elmer Lyons, Wm. Champ, Albert Olson, Charles Tinkle, Eldon McCreary, Byron Neff, Charles Cole, Renze DeRiter, Benson Farley, Owen Duckett (a sister), Robert Emberton, Miss Maple Callon, and Mrs. Melvin Merriman.

PIGSKIN PROM

Following the Homecoming Game September 30, in which Greenwood defeated Mooresville by a score of 12 to 0, the Senior Class sponsored the annual Pigskin Prom in the High School gymnasium. At the upper left, guests are relaxing between dances. Refreshments were sold in the concession room at the dance. Upper right -- Peggy Merriman, Charlotte Cole, and Roberta Potts sell Mr. Harner some cokes after Greenwood's victory. Preceding the game, the procession of the police, fire trucks, band, candidates for queen, and floats, which were entered by all classes, paraded through the downtown district. The float (at right) entered by the Sophomore class was chosen as the winner of the contest by the three judges. At the dance, the candidates for queen were introduced by Coach Young, and the Queen was announced. She was Jean Cox, Sophomore candidate, being crowned at lower left by Co-Kings David Sheek and Robert Emberton. The other candidates were: Senior, Betty Worrick; Junior, Bonnie Farley; and Freshman, Carolee Haubry. The Queen and the Kings were chosen by the football team.

F. H. A. SOCK HOP

Saturday, February 11 was the date of the annual F. H. A Valentine Sock Hop. Music was by Boyd Bennet, Bill Haley, Nelson Riddle, Percy Faith, Mitch Miller, Les Brown, Les Elgart, Glenn Miller, Benny Goodman, Guy Lombardo, and Somethin' Smith and the Red Heads. Guest Vocalists were Julius LaRosa, Perry Como, Eddie Fisher, Dean Martin, Patti Page, Kay Starr, Doris Day, Frank Sinatra, Theresa Brewer, Gale Storm, The McGuire Sisters, Joni James, and Jerry Southern.

Couples at the dance (above) seem to be enjoying these popular records in the G. H. S. gym.

Pictured at lower right are the winners of the sock decorating contest. From left to right are the feet of Bonnie Farley, Donna Fishel, Connie Inlow, and Diana Fisher.

I'm sure all those who attended had a good time and loads of fun.

SENIOR TRIP

April 25 the seniors left for Washington D. C. They boarded the train amid the shuffling of bags, radios, and a uke.

Upon their arrival in Washington, they were ushered onto their sightseeing bus. They first visited the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, which was very interesting; next, they went to the Capitol Building; after visiting the solemn atmosphere of the Supreme Court building, they returned to the Hotel Annapolis for lunch.

The afternoon tour consisted of the beautiful, impressive changing of the guard at The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington; a brief stop at the Iwo Jima statue, its immense size and reality was very impressive; next, was Mount Vernon, the home of Washington. There was a very beautiful view overlooking the Potomac. Enroute to Mount Vernon they entered the Church where George Washington and Robert E. Lee worshiped.

The Annapolis Hotel was the destination for a tired group of Seniors. After a little rest, they dressed for dinner which was at the Casino Royal nightclub. They all enjoyed the food and the stage show featuring Lillian Briggs.

That night at the hotel many things happened, including water bombs, flash bulb pictures, and a LITTLE bit of sleep.

Bright and early the next morning they ate breakfast in the hotel dining room. Then they visited the Lincoln and Jefferson memorials, the White House and the Archives Building. One of the most remarkable sights was the Lincoln museum (old Ford Theater), where Lincoln was assassinated, and the old Peterson home, where he died.

After lunch they made their memorable climb to the top of the Washington monument. The view from the top of the monument was very inspiring.

Their next stop was the Smithsonian Institute, where they saw the Kitty Hawk and the Spirt of St. Louis. The girls were interested in the gowns worn by the first ladies of the land.

The next to last stop was the National Gallery of Art, which houses the most expensive art collection in existence.

Then they took a shopping trip through Woodward and Lothrop's Department Store, where many of the boys bought bright shirts for the return trip.

Breakfast the next morning was served while they rode through the Blue Ridge Mountains, and while riding along the Kentucky bank of the Ohio River, they ate dinner.

Twenty-two weary seniors happily arrived home.

PROM

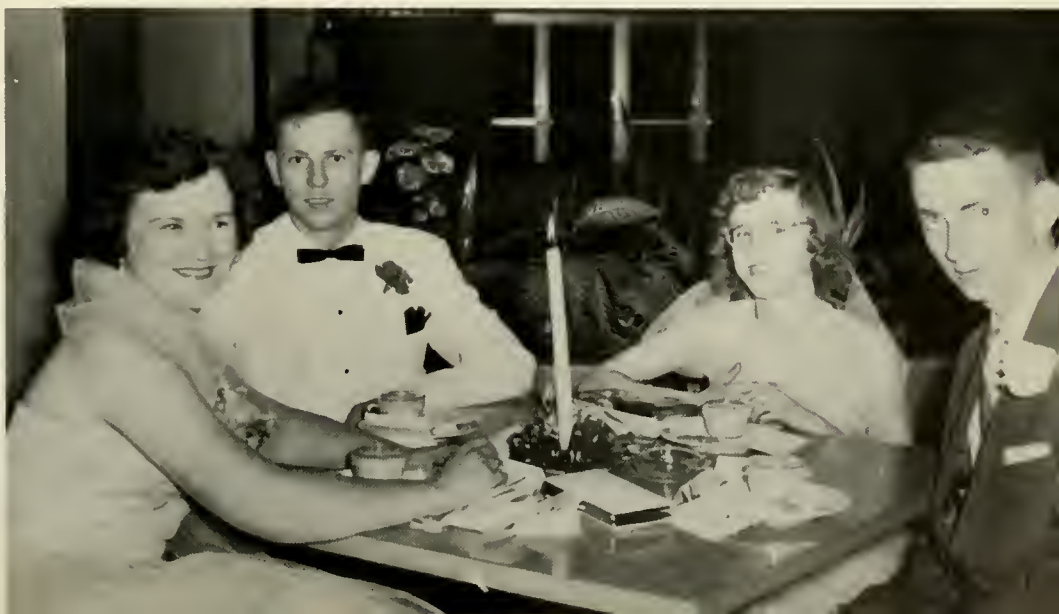
The Junior-Senior Prom, honoring the Senior Class of 1956, was held Saturday, May 19 in the Student Union Building of the Indiana University Medical Center. The theme of "Harbor Lights" was carried out in the programs, orchestra pit, and attractive table decorations. Those who attended danced to the music of The Butler Collegians.

At the left, the Senior Class President, Diane Millspaugh, and her escort, Richard Darnell, talk with the Junior Class President, Lois Stretchberry, and her date, David Allen, at the punch table.

I'm sure none of those who attended the dance will ever forget any of the things that happened that evening. Two Senior Class members were married before the prom, and two became engaged later in the evening.

Pictured at right, enjoying the dance, are the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neff, and their attendants, Phyllis Hendrickson and Lloyd Willis. Mrs. Neff is the former Mary Carroll.

Although the prom began at 8:30 and ended at 11:30, I'm sure we all could have "danced all night."



BACCALAUREATE

The seniors attending Baccalaureate services are, Left to Right: Phyllis Hendrickson, Barbara Burton, Juanita Lyons, Charlotte Cole, Diane Millspaugh, Sue Cutrell, Betty Worrick, Peggy Merriman, Mary Carroll, Barbara McCreary, Betty McDowell, Norma Todd, Geraldine Farley, Don Peavler, Charles Tinkle, David Gibson, Walter Neff, David Sheek, Earl DeRiter, Kenneth Olson, Don Featherston, Roberta Potts, Bill Ball, and Frederick Haugh.

Reverend Brown, Associate Minister of the North Methodist Church in Indianapolis delivered the message at the Baccalaureate services which were held in the Christian Church. Reverend Dial opened the services with the invocation, Reverend Marlett gave the scripture reading and Reverend Melton pronounced the benediction. The Greenwood High School Chorus, under the direction of Verne Jacobs, sang several selections.

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement was held on May 23 with 25 graduating. Dr. Amos L. Boren of the Roberts Park Methodist Church in Indianapolis gave the Commencement address, entitled "The Set of the Sails."

Roberta Potts gave the Valedictory speech. Salutatorian was Betty McDowell--not pictured.

Mrs. Gibson receives a rose from her son, David, and Mrs. Cole receives one from her daughter, Charlotte. Each mother received a red rose bud, the class flower, as she arrived.
